*...we are here to ensure your escalator does what
it's designed to do,
whenever it needs to...*

Customer service and technical excellence have always been imperative to Pickering's Lifts. From design and sales through to installation and maintenance we pride ourselves on our services and products.

We understand how crucial the escalator is to your business and we are here to ensure your escalator does what it's designed to do, whenever it needs to.

We pride ourselves in being able to maintain, service and repair any make and any model of escalator. We have a national network of fully qualified engineers operating out of nine local offices UK-wide. Their depth of experience and knowledge gives you the security of knowing that they can handle any problem with maximum efficiency.

Our maintenance contracts are designed to keep your escalator and your business moving. We have extensive experience in integrating with customer-specific management systems and can adapt our contracts to any situation whilst ensuring you meet all legal requirements.

At each visit we ensure your escalator or travelator is of optimum condition with minimum disruption to your business.

In the event of a breakdown, if you have a Pickering's Lifts' Escalators service agreement, you will receive first-class service and priority attention. We will do everything we can to get your escalator or travelator and your business up and running as quickly as possible.
