...exceptional engineering, outstanding quality and first-class service are the hallmarks of a Pickerings Lift...

Lift passengers demand reliability. You demand quality. Thousands of people rely on our designs. Thousands of companies trust our lifts.

Pickerings Lifts was founded in 1854 and has had an unbroken history of independent ownership since that date. The wealth of knowledge we've gained from over 150 years experience has made us into the UK's largest and leading independent lift manufacturer we are today.

We have manufactured lifts from our UK base since the company was founded and continue to do so to this day.

So, whether you need an access, passenger, goods or specialist lift, Pickerings Lifts has the knowledge, experience and expertise you can rely on.

We can provide you with a complete service starting with our experienced sales professionals specifying the right product for your requirements to designing and installing your lift through to maintaining it once it has been installed.

All of our lifts are designed for smooth, reliable, quiet and energy efficient operation whether it is from our standard range or one of our UK manufactured specialist lifts. Our electric traction lifts' eco-efficient design will give you two BREEAM credits towards your building. And, with a choice of finishes and many other options available, your lift will always be unique.
